Presbyterian Disaster Assistance has long-term partnerships in the Middle East that can not only channel funds to the immediate needs following the February earthquakes that hit Turkey and Syria, but also direct funds to the on-going projects necessary for the long-term recovery of the region.

In addition to this afternoon's offering, you can also make a donation simply by visiting Old First's donations page: <https://dev.oldfirst.org/donations//> – under "Select Giving Opportunity," choose "Turkey Earthquake."
